PENNSYLVANIA CONCRETE MASONRY ASSOCIATION

PCMA

2025 Annual Family Convention

A weekend of Education, Family Activities, Great Food and Fun for Members, Families & Guests!

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

FRIDAY, June 20, 2025

11:30 AM - 1:30 PM

Registration in the Hotel Lobby

1:00 - 4:00 PM - EDUCATION SESSIONS

"Merger of NCMA and ICPI into CMHA" by Robert Thomas, President, CEO - Concrete Masonry & Hardscapes Association (CMHA)

Bob will provide some perspectives on how the entire masonry industry, including CMHA, is adapting to a new paradigm of industry promotion with the continuing evolution of the Concrete Masonry Checkoff program. He will showcase CMHA programs, market trends and external influences, and strategies to improve positioning for both concrete masonry and hardscape markets.

"Cost Estimating Effected By National Weather And Other Events" by Pat Riley, CPCU, ARM, CRIS, Partner / Senior Vice President - USI Insurance Services LLC

Pat is part of the team for the Cost Study with Walt Schneider. He will discuss the impact of natural disasters on structures, how they can be designed and constructed with community risk in mind, the builders risk/property insurance market, total cost increases to insure projects of all types, as well as construction materials that have experienced sharp rate increases for multi-residential structures.

"PCMA & Industry Related Updates" by Executive Director Jan Boyer

An update on the latest information on PCMA and Mid-Atlantic Masonry Association programs and committee activities to promote Masonry and Hardscapes in the Mid-Atlantic area.
